HOME PAGE:

The user can visit the main page which has the highlight news and has various options for news in the following fields: Business, Health, Sports, Entertainment, India, World, Tech and Science news. Each of these can be accessed within any page of the application. It has navigation to the Main page and also the Login/ Register page.

LATEST NEWS: (NewsApi)

The user can check out the latest news that is dynamically connected with news API, where an API key should be generated.

After creating an account, an API key is generated.

A screenshot of the News API registration page, titled 'Register for API key'. The page includes a 'Back to home' link. The registration form contains the following fields and options: 'First name' (filled with 'Swathika K'), 'Email address' (filled with 'k.swathika39@gmail.com'), a password field with a toggle for visibility, and a selection for 'You are...' with radio buttons for 'I am an individual' (selected) and 'I am a business, or am working on behalf of a business'. At the bottom, there is a reCAPTCHA 'I'm not a robot' checkbox and an 'Activate Windows' watermark in the bottom right corner.

Using the API key, the frontend with HTML was connected dynamically.

The screenshot shows the 'Account' page of the News API. At the top, a green notification bar says 'Logged in successfully.' with a close button. Below this, the 'Account' title is followed by sections for 'Email', 'Password', 'API key', and 'Subscription'. The 'Email' section shows the address 'sec19it089@sairamtap.edu.in' with an 'Update email address' button. The 'Password' section has a 'Change password' button. The 'API key' section displays 'bf36fc6aa93142989b0d224ed1176a22'. The 'Subscription' section indicates the 'Developer' plan and includes a blue box with a warning: 'You should only use the Developer plan if your project is in development. If your project is being used in production, please upgrade to a paid plan.' A 'Logout' button is in the top right corner. The browser's address bar shows 'newsapi.org/account'.
